The name is program

Metal cover from five decades

TRIBUTE TO METAL

performs the most outstanding songs from the entire spectrum of Heavy Metal - live in one set and as close to the original as possible. Passion not only for a band, but an entire genre.

Even the musicians do not like each other, they share a high level of playfulness and joy. Concentrated metal power for all fans of the harder gait in shows of up to three hours.

TRIBUTE TO METAL covers next to primal rocks like Iron Maiden, Metallica, Megadeth, Judas Priest or Dio as well as bands like Alter Bridge, Anthrax, Disturbed, Dream Theater, Pantera, Pretty Maids, Queensrÿche, System of a Down, Van Halen and more.

This multi-faceted mix of energies and sounds forms the perfect basis for a full-length spectacle that will not only spit on more adrenaline into the blood of sworn Metalheads.

Founding members of TRIBUTE TO METAL are Uli Mücke and Marco Lamonaca, who together with their many years of experience as lead guitarist and drummer form the musical basis of the band.

Singer and frontman of the band is Tim Buse.

Not least through his work as a vocal coach, he has the necessary tools to meet the enormous spectrum of styles. He succeeds in an impressive way to fine-tune the narrow line between originality and his own identity.

Chris Steffens loves his typical role as a bassist: Mostly in second place, he is aware of its fundamental importance for the voluminous sound of the band.

On the second guitar Max McMillan completes the soundtrack of TRIBUTE TO METAL as a real metalhead and musicologist. Besides Uli Mücke he also sings the backing vocals.
